

making LIFE DISCIPLES™

Now Available as an Interactive, Online Course!

Making Life Disciples™ is ministry resource designed to equip the church to offer compassion, hope, help, and discipleship to women and men facing pregnancy decisions. It is available as an 8-session DVD-based Kit, as streaming content through RightNow Media (for churches that are subscribers), and now as an interactive, online course you can take individually or with your church or small group.

Self-paced Option:

- A course you can take at your own pace and revisit any time for review.
- Hours of video content from experts in caring for men and women who are at risk.
- Six topics broken up into sixteen half-hour lessons.
- Engage in interactive activities and discussions with other learners around the world.
- Download handouts and all your personal notes when you need them.

$19.95

Group-based Option:

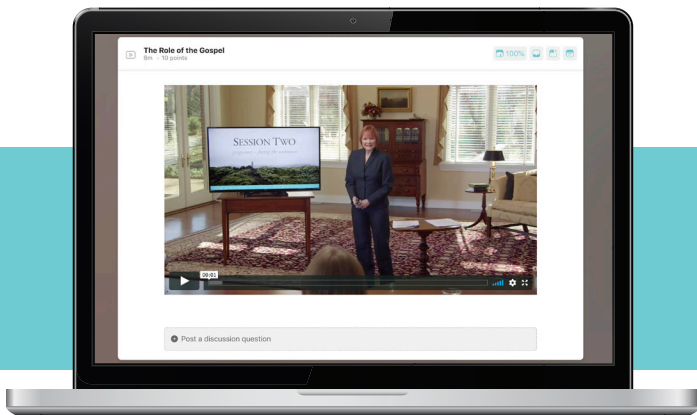

- When you sign up, you'll be able to invite your members, assign lessons, see where everyone is on the learning path, and track their progress through the course.
- You'll also have the ability to send check-in messages and schedule reminders to help keep everyone on track.
- Eight 1.5 hour sessions
- You'll be automatically notified anytime someone posts a question or submits something for your review.
- All the MLD material—including a leader's guide—is part of the online experience.
